GLEP Endorses 18 Candidates in 2016 House Campaigns

Leading education advocacy group makes additional campaign endorsements

Lansing, MI – The Great Lakes Education Project (GLEP) today announced endorsements for candidates in 18 races for the Michigan House of Representatives in 2016.

“We’re confident these candidates will be forceful advocates for children in the legislature, and we’re pleased to endorse and support their campaigns,” said Gary Naeyaert, GLEP Executive Director. Candidates endorsed today by GLEP include the following:

- District #21: Derek Moss (Canton)
- District #23: Bob Howey (Trenton)
- District #24: Steve Marino (Harrison Township)
- District #26: Randy LeVasseur (Royal Oak)
- District #30: Diana Farrington (Utica)
- District #32: Pamela Hornberger (Chesterfield Township)
- District #33: Colleen Carl (Armada Township)
- District #46: Joe Kent (Addison Township)
- District #57: Bronna Kahle (Adrian Township)
- District #66: Beth Griffin (Mattawan)
- District #70: James Lower (Cedar Lake)
- District #72: Ryan Gallogly (Kentwood)
- District #76: Casey O’Neill (Grand Rapids)
- District #87: Julie Calley (Portland)
- District #89: Jim Lilly (Park Township)
- District #97: Jason Wentworth (Evart)
- District #103: Daire Rendon (Lake City)
- District #108: Beau LaFave (Iron Mountain)

“We urge voters to examine past records and positions on key issues to make the important decisions about which candidates to support,” said Beth DeShone, GLEP Advocacy Director.

GLEP’s endorsement process includes past voting records, personal interviews and results from a candidate questionnaire. Priority issues for GLEP include school choice and early literacy, while endorsed candidates may hold various positions on K-12 funding, curriculum standards, assessments, etc.

Today’s announcement of 18 candidate endorsements is in addition to the 25 incumbent endorsements made by GLEP on June 21, resulting in 43 endorsed candidates so far in 2016.
